This silver gelatine photograph of a rooster taken by Marchant Studio, Gawler, was a surprise find for the conservators at Artlab Australia.

The 'Wyandotte' won prizes at both Gawler Agricultural Show and Kapunda and Light Agricultural Show in 1912.

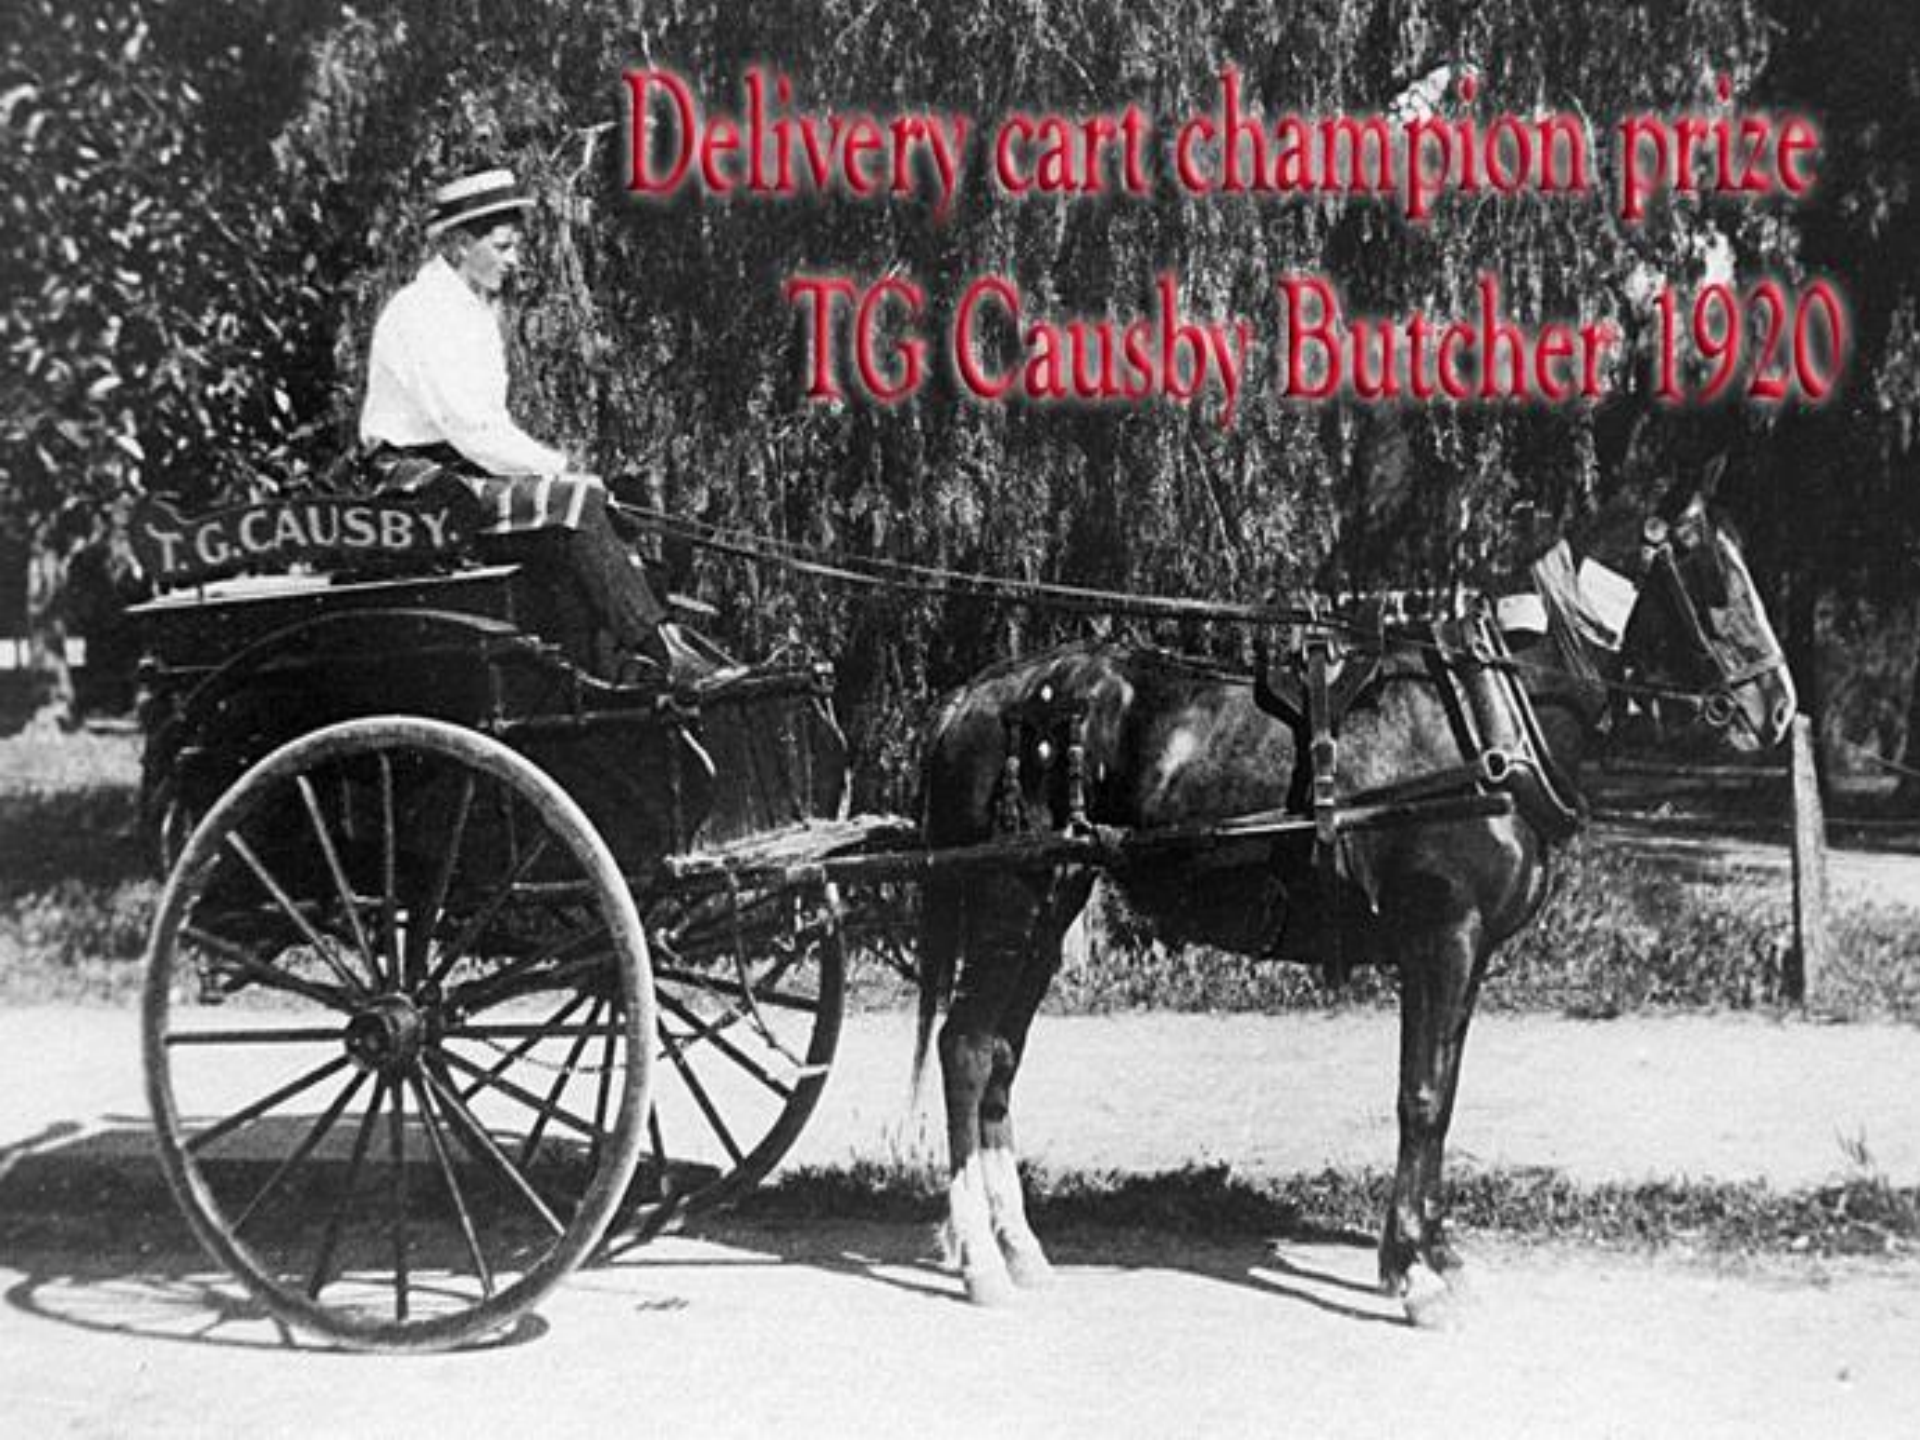

One of the judges remarked that the ... silver Wyandotte cock would have scored in the big city shows

The Gawler Show is one of the State's oldest and biggest Agricultural shows. Our photo this week has 'HMAS Crystal' winning first prize in the float competition. The warship representing Taylor Bros ("The Butter Factory"). Next door is a gypsy caravan with an entourage of Eudunda Farmers own 'gypsies'. This photo was taken in the mid 1930's when it seemed a lot more effort and fun was had in preparing floats like these for the annual show parade. If you have any interesting old photos of our district contact Doug at The Bunyip and we'll see if we can publish them.
